WHAT'S ON...

Box office and enquiries 01803 665800

WELCOME... ...to the Palace Theatre Paignton

Oh my goodness – there is so much going on at the Palace these days that it's difficult to know where to start! This What's On brochure is packed with details of our current programme of shows but there is now so much more going on at the Palace, particularly in Stage Left, our new arts and events space. See the section at the back of this book for details of workshops, classes and community events.

A huge thank you to our March and April audiences for helping us to send over £1,200 to the Save The Children Ukraine Crisis Appeal - every penny certainly counts.

Look out for the latest show information in your inbox or on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter. If that's all gobbledegook to you then of course we love seeing you here at the box office; Issy, Lisa and Heather are the team on duty that are delighted to help in any way they can.

Thank you for your support and we hope to see you again soon at the Palace.

Maureen, Deirdre and the Palace Team.

TAKE YOUR SEAT AND...

...ENJOY THE SHOW!

The Unexpected Guest

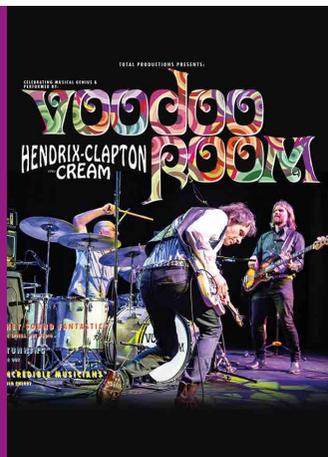

Twist upon twist and false clues abound in this dark brooding mystery from the Queen of Crime Agatha Christie.

On a dark and foggy night, a stranger arrives at a remote house to get help as his car has run off the road. On entering through an open garden door, he stumbles across the dead body of the owner of the house. Standing beside the body with a gun in her hand is the dead man's wife. But not all is as it seems.

A Bijou Theatre Production.

Every Tues, Wed and Thurs from 7 June to 28 July - 7:30pm

Tickets £11.50 - £15

Voodoo Room

Be part of an incredible homage to three music legends, Jimi Hendrix, Eric Clapton and Cream, in this explosive new production.

Packed with an incredible high energy and performed by some of the UK's finest musicians, this show will transport you back in time to the original concerts, delivering the true spirit of these legendary superstars. This is the true fans' production, a collection of outstanding musicians who have not only performed the songs, they have lived the life! No wigs.

No pantomime. Just great music played by great musicians!

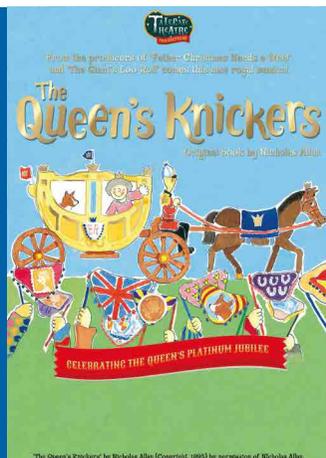

Friday 10 June - 7:30pm | Tickets £18

The Queen's Knickers

TaleGate Theatre Productions bring you this regal children's musical full of songs, silliness and a corgi or two!

It's a busy year for the Queen - she has lots of important events to attend. But disaster has struck the palace as Her Majesty's knickers have been nicked - call the royal guard! Meanwhile, a little girl is wondering what knickers Her Majesty will choose to wear on a school visit! Will they be her 'at home' knickers - adorned with corgis - or her 'garden party' knickers, or perhaps her woolly Balmoral ones...

Sunday 12 June - 11am and 2pm | Tickets £10 - £13

An Evening with Su Pollard

Su is about to embark on her first ever "An Evening with Su Pollard" tour where she will talk about her exceptional career, which is sure to be filled with laughter and a few tears.

She made her television debut on Opportunity Knocks, where she came second to a singing Jack Russell dog and is best known for her role as Peggy in the BAFTA Award-winning sitcom Hi-De-Hi and was honoured to be the subject of This Is Your Life. Su will also undertake a Q & A with the audience.

Friday 17 June - 7:30pm | Tickets £20
Meet and greet available

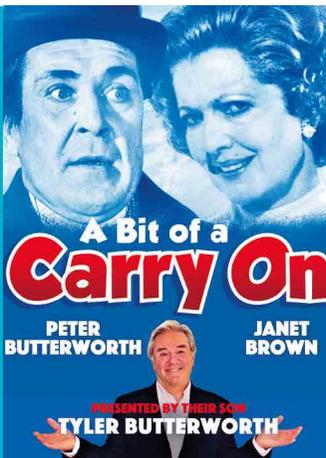

Afternoon Tea Dance

A delightful afternoon of dancing in Stage Left, with live music provided by the fantastic Caddicks and Parkes, a jazz and blues duo performing a range of familiar and popular tunes such as Sway, Que Sera Sera and Chattanooga Good Time Boy.

Pianist Paul Caddick and singer Nicky Parkes provide the perfect addition to your Saturday afternoon tea dance. No backing tracks just a fabulous voice and keys. Join in the truly vintage vibe and dress up to the nines.

Saturday 18 June - 2:30pm | Tickets £12
(Includes tea, coffee and cake)

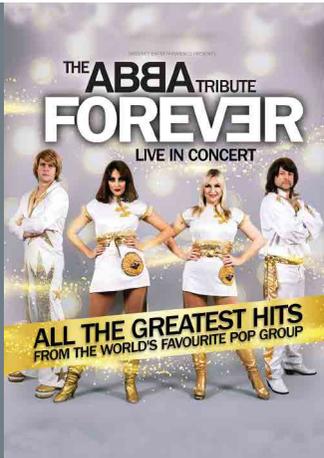

A Bit of a Carry On

A warm and uplifting journey from wartime to showtime.

Darling Buds of May actor Tyler Butterworth tells the funny, moving and unashamedly nostalgic story of his much-loved parents, the nation's first female TV impressionist Janet Brown, and the inimitable Carry On star Peter Butterworth. From heroic wartime escapades at POW camp to a night at Chequers with Mrs Thatcher, the show takes you deep into the golden age of British TV and film comedy and a chance to really get to know two of British comedy's brightest stars.

My Dear Old Things: An Evening With Henry Blofeld

A wonderfully engaging evening for all as Blowers reflects on a truly extraordinary life.

He recalls his days as a young England hopeful, how an Eton bus knocked him off his stride - and his bike - and his meandering way Test Match Special commentary box. There are hilarious tales of Johnners, Arlott and other larger-than-life characters in the box and on tour with England. Henry also has plenty of hysterical stories from his post-retirement appearances on Would I Lie to You? and The Real Marigold Hotel.

Thursday 6 October - 7:30pm | Tickets £22 - £25

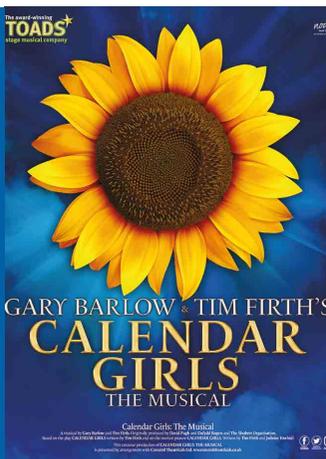

Double Death

It is a stormy night on the Cornish coast and the rivalry between identical twins Ashley and Max Hennessy reaches its final act.

Confined in a wheelchair after a mountaineering accident that may or may not have been his brother's fault, Ashley can only rely on his ditty aunt, a CID Inspector nearing retirement and his overly officious nurse if he is to survive his brother's murderous birthday plans. A play by Simon Williams presented by Bijou Theatre Productions and directed by James Mackenzie-Thorpe.

Wednesday 12 to Saturday 15 October - 7:30pm | Tickets £15

Calendar Girls

The death of a much loved husband prompts a group of ordinary women in a small Yorkshire Women's Institute to do an extraordinary thing.

Blasting away all preconceptions of what it is to be in a women's institute, they decide to do an artistic nude calendar to raise money for charity. Uturning preconceptions is a dangerous business but gradually the making of the fabulous and funny calendar brings each woman unexpectedly into flower. Presented by TOADS, the award-winning stage musical company.

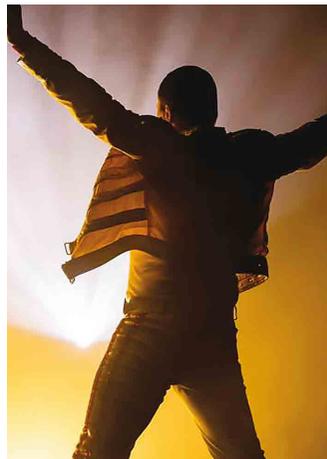

Tuesday 18 to Saturday 22 October (matinee 22 Oct - 2:30pm)
Tickets £15 - £17
